

Expert workshop and symposium

‘Data on educational qualifications in social survey research’

University of Stirling, 31st August 2010

This one day event will feature presentations, and demonstrations of the prototype system, of the DAMES Node's research resource 'GEEDE', a portal system which is designed to enhance access to data resources relevant to the analysis of educational qualifications in social survey research.

Tuesday 31st August 2010

DAMES Expert Workshop on ‘Data on educational qualifications in social survey research’

Provisional schedule at 19/AUG/2010 (subject to change)

1030-1100	3S15	Coffee/Registration
1100-1230	3S27	Introduction to GEEDE: ‘Grid Enabled Educational Data Resources’ (including presentation and lab session) (Paul Lambert, Guy Warner, and others)
1230-1330	3S15	Lunch
1330-1430	3S15	Dealing with data on educational qualifications: Principles and practice (Vernon Gayle)
1430-1500	3S15	Some old and new measures using educational qualifications (Paul Lambert)
1500-1530	3S15	Coffee/Tea
1530-1630		Review and consultation: Next steps in supporting data on educational qualifications in GEEDE (DAMES Node)

(workshop schedule subject to change; for materials after the workshop see www.dames.org.uk/workshops/)

DAMES: Data Management through e-Social Science

DAMES – see www.dames.org.uk - is funded by the ESRC's programme in e-Social Science